

Madina

Six-year-old Madina Husiny, originally from Afghanistan, was killed on the night of November 21st, 2017 because Croatia refused to give her refuge. Her mother said the family entered Croatia and asked for an asylum, but the police ignored their request and made them go back to Serbia. The police had taken them, like so many others, to the railroad tracks at the border. In the middle of the night, they were forced to leave Croatia, tired, on foot.

Not long afterwards, a train came along that killed Madina.
